

AN AWARD-WINNING AGENCY

With a huge reputation and more than 10,000 solved cases

An impressive list of clients that includes more than 500 national and international companies, celebrities, politicians and bureaucrats

Company Profile

Sleuths India is an award-winning and highly acclaimed private investigation agency that has 23 years of market experience and also a catalogue of over 10,000 solved cases. It's not only the most trusted organization in the private investigation field but also the most awarded investigative agency across the country as well. Over the years, it has won so many prestigious awards for maintaining excellence in investigation, including Awards by the President of India (The Young Entrepreneur Award in 2012), by MoS, Ministry of Home Affairs (Investigation Entrepreneur of the Year Award in 2014), by Minister of Tribal Affairs (Investigation Leadership Award in 2017).

Sleuths India is also the only detective agency that hires A-list Bollywood stars for brand marketing. In recent times alone, it has involved top actors like Kangana Ranaut, Taapsee Pannu and RajKumar Rao for promotion purposes. In fact, two of its most recent co-branding initiatives involved the 2019 suspense thriller movie “Judgemental Hai Kya” and 2022 murder mystery “Dobaaraa” or 2...12). The agency has also collaborated with India's top entertainment & movie company Balaji Telefilms Limited to benefit from the reach of cinema in taking the world-class investigation to the next level.

Similarly, unlike most other private investigation agencies, Sleuths India has an edge in the domain as it's supported by an excellent management team comprising senior retired Intelligence Bureau Officers, Police officers, Army Officers and RAW Officers actively associated with the company. And due to an impressive track-record of over two decades, the agency also boasts of a heavy media presence with regular mentions in the Doordarshan, Economic Times, the Times of India, Deccan Herald, DNA, The Outlook, The DD News, ZEE News, Mint, Dainik Jagran etc. Without doubt, Sleuths can claim to enjoy the maximum coverage among all the private investigation players in India.

On top of that, Sleuths India is also a proud member to some of most prestigious organizations for trade and industry in India. It's currently associated with APDI, WAD, ASSOCHAM, PHD Chambers of Commerce, CII (Confederation of Indian industry), NASSCOM, DMA (Delhi Management Association).

And if Sleuths India is so massively successful, most of the credit of its success goes to Naman Jain, the Managing Director, who forms the core of the management. UK-trained and over two decades of industry experience, Mr. Jain is a brand in itself overseeing day-to-day operations and guiding the team with poise and assurance. The MD is a multi-award winning individual and has personally solved many cases and won accolades from media houses. He's been at the helm of some of the most publicized cases in India which earns him a huge respect among the industry peers and clients alike.

The agency is also privileged to have Nidhi Jain as its director – she is an MBA in finance, an investment banker-turned-detective and the only lady detective in India to have won the prestigious "Investigation Leadership Award" for 2017. She's also a highly-acclaimed detective with an immensely successful professional career and multiple mentions across media platforms, notable among them are a Prasar Bharati-sponsored documentary, an Outlook magazine cover story, a Grazia coverage (a leading International Fashion Magazine from Italy) and many regular mentions in prominent national dailies including Navbharat Times, Hindustan Times, Deccan Herald, and the Times of India etc.

Most importantly, Sleuths India leads the private investigation space on the back of using the most sophisticated technologies and for having the largest team of investigators in the field. All its offices are located in the posh locality of the big/metro cities of India, and they are well-furnished and equipped with latest gadgets and tools. It runs a well-equipped office in Delhi, Mumbai, Bangalore, Lucknow, Pune, Chandigarh, Hyderabad, Chennai and Kolkata.

Management

Naman Jain, the award-winning MD of Sleuths India, is a man with unrivalled vision and a professional with great credentials in private investigation. And rightly so, he's the "one" responsible for the remarkable growth and success of the agency. Forming the core of the management team, he's a highly-acclaimed leader with around two decades of corporate experience, involving the achievement of transforming a small-time agency into the most trusted brand in the space of private investigation. Prior to joining Sleuths India, he received professional training from the UK and later returned to script an incredible success story for the agency. In a glittering career, he's personally solved many high-profile cases, won accolades from peers and bagged prestigious awards. In 2012, he won the "Young Entrepreneur Award", by the president of India and in 2014, he bagged the "Investigation Entrepreneur of the Year Award" for 2014, by MoS, Ministry of Home Affairs. Mr. Naman Jain has been involved with some of most publicized cases in India and that's why, he enjoys respect among the industry peers and clients alike. His commendable works in the field of private investigation have been widely reported across print and electronic media. He has been featured in several interviews by various media houses and channels. He's easily the most popular leader in investigation space and his achievements are hard to match.

Nidhi Jain, the award-winning director, is a highly-acclaimed lady detective who forms the core of the management at Sleuths India and manages the vast networks of the agency. An MBA in finance, and an investment banker-turned-detective, she is a leader with enviable reputation and matchless credentials, and the only lady detective in India to have won the prestigious "Investigation Leadership Award" for 2017. A professional with over 10 years of experience in the field of private investigation, she oversees operations of all four branches of the company -- located at New Delhi, Mumbai, Hyderabad and Bangalore -- and forms the nucleus of the investigative team. She's the one responsible for managing day-to-day activities of the agency, collaborating with branch managers, strategizing over cases and personally handling investigations of complex nature. She guides a team of IB offices and retired army officers, contributes to cases personally and enjoys an enviable reputation on the back of many complex cases solved successfully. Her decade-long career is marked by a long-list of achievements highlighting her matchless leadership qualities and superlative investigation skills, transforming Sleuths India from a modest entity to a domain-leading agency. She has contributed to many high-profile and much-publicized cases in India; has also worked with top politicians, celebrities, and corporate honchoes in the country. Nidhi Jain has an immensely successful professional career with multiple mentions across media platforms, notable among them are a Prasar Bharati-sponsored documentary, an Outlook magazine cover story and a Gracia, a leading International Fashion Magazine from Italy, Gracia. Besides, her investigation credentials and outstanding works have found extensive coverage in some of prominent national dailies, including Navbharat Times, Hindustan Times and the Times of India etc.

Standing on the top of the domain, the company still strives to sustain the momentum in the same way to become one of the most sought-after global brands in the investigation field.

Awards & Recognition

- Awarded By The President of India, (2012)

"Awards are a true testimony of the sustained excellence of an organization!" This popular proverb aptly testifies why Sleuths India is the "Most-Valued-Brand" in the investigation domain of the country. In its already swelling cupboard of honours, the company has recently added another prestigious medal when its MD, Mr. Naman Jain was awarded with the 'Young Investigation Entrepreneur Award'. The award recognizes Mr Jain's outstanding leadership skills and innovation abilities in the investigative segment to propel the company on the path of unprecedented growth and glory.

Mr. Naman Jain was honoured in a high-profile and dazzling ceremony that was held at 7th Security Leadership Summit, Manekshaw Centre, Delhi Cant, New Delhi. His candidature was shortlisted by a reputed panel that included some of renowned IPS and IAS officers who selected him from a huge pool of over 3000 security and detective agencies from all across India.

At the ceremony, former President of India, Smt. Pratibha Devi Singh Patil handed over the award to Mr. Naman Jain amid raucous cheers and congratulatory gestures from the reputed crowd. Governor of Punjab, His Highness, Shri Shivraj V. Patil presented the "Certificate" to Mr Jain regarding the same award.

With this award, both Sleuths India and Naman Jain have now joined an elite club that witnesses the inclusion of only all-round excellence and innovation. The award is a true testimony to unrivalled leadership skills, penetrating wisdom and acute vision that Mr Jain has been exhibiting to put Sleuths India on the path of tremendous growth.

The Young Entrepreneur Award could not have been awarded to anyone else than Mr Naman Jain who has single-handedly transformed the fate of a company in a very short-span of time, changing its modest beginning into a highly acclaimed and pan-national private investigation agency. He has helped the company to register an amazing 1000% growth in revenues on the back of possessing maximum number of employees in the domain and having multiple offices spread in all parts of India.

- Awarded By MoS, Ministry of Home Affairs (2014)

Sleuths India MD, Mr. Naman Jain, scripted a glorious chapter of achievement by winning the prestigious "Investigation Entrepreneur of the Year Award" for 2014, by MoS, Ministry of Home Affairs. This high-profile award comes in just a span of two years of his bagging the "Young Investigation Entrepreneur Award", in 2012, by the president of India.

Mr. Jain was honored in a glitzy ceremony of 9th SECURITY SKILLS & LEADERSHIP SUMMIT 2014, organized on 12th & 13th December, 2014, at PHD Chambers of Commerce, New Delhi. Many highly placed dignitaries graced the occasion, and the award itself was presented by Shri Haribhai P Chaudhary, Minister of State, Ministry of Home Affairs. The 'Memento of Appreciation' was given away by Shri Shivraj Patil, Governor of Punjab.

Highly placed dignitaries, senior bureaucrats and ministers were present in the ceremony, chief of them were Shri Rajiv Pratap Rudy (Minister of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship and Parliamentary Affairs), Shri Jual Ram (Minister of Tribal Affairs), Shri Shivraj Patil (Governor of Punjab). Additionally, there were also over 500 high-profile people of the investigation domain, including CEOs, Managers, MDs, Chairpersons and other big names of the domain.

The candidature of Mr. Jain triumphed only after withstanding a thorough and rigorous selection process that saw the participation of over 3000 security and detective agencies from pan-India. A jury of senior IAS and IPS officers screened the entries based on series of criteria like turnover, expansion & growth, market credibility, successful execution of cases, client satisfaction ratio, employee satisfaction ratio etc.

Sleuths India is reported to have benefitted for its strong media presence and many of its highlighted cases. More so, an impressive clientele further impressed the jury and tilted their decision towards the premier investigation agency. In overall, it was a truly deserving honor for an agency and MD that are committed to bring a new dimension to the domain!

Investigation Leadership Award

- Nidhi Jain is the winner of the prestigious "Investigation Leadership Award" for 2017

The management team and its continuous efforts towards investigation excellence make Sleuths India arguably the most-awarded private detective agency in the country. Its director Nidhi Jain thus proves again why she's hailed for her matchless leadership credentials, and also for redefining the private investigation segment.

She now becomes the only lady detective in India to ever win the prestigious the "Investigation Leadership Award" for 2017. This is another massive achievement in a career marked by a series of successes involving several high-profile solved cases and rich mentions across media platforms.

The award was presented to Nidhi Jain in a glittering ceremony attended by top industry leaders and distinguished guests from different walks of life. The award function - 12th Security Skills & Leadership Summit – 2017, was held at Hotel Le Meridien, New Delhi on 16-17 December, 2017, and the trophy was handed over to her by Sh. Jual Oram, Hon'ble Minister of Tribal Affairs.

The award deservedly belongs to Nidhi Jain for she has been guiding Sleuths India single-handedly, managing its vast network, handling all its four branches and collaborating with branch managers besides forming the nucleus of the investigation team. She is responsible for transforming a small agency into multi crore domain leader in the field of private investigation space.

Fitting so, during the ceremony, the stage was also shared by prominent guests such as Maharaja Raghubir Singh Ji and Kunwar Vikram Singh. Some of other high profile guests to grace the occasion included the likes of Gen. Dr. V K Singh, Hon'ble MOS, Foreign Affairs; Dr. Vikram Singh, IPS (Retd.), Former DGP (U.P.); Lt. General K. J. Singh (Retd.) PVSM, AVSM with BAR.

Further, the ceremony was also attended by notable people from across different walks of life, including Maharaja Ranjit Singh ji; Maj. General K. Majumdar (Retd.); Maj. General Umang Sethi (Retd); Sh. C Pal Singh, Former IGP; Sh. B. S. Sial, IPS (Retd.) Former DGP, Karnataka; Maj. Gen A. K. Sakhuja, CEO, SSSDC; Lt. Gen. Rajender Singh, PVSM, SM, VSM, Former Director General of Infantry (Indian Army)

This award also acknowledges the outstanding work and impeccable track record enjoyed by Nidhi Jain in the space of private investigation. The achievement is rare as she is the only lady detective from the domain to be chosen for such a big award, highlighting her investigation excellence and leadership qualities.

The award honors the determination and distinction of a lady who defied all odds, broken conventions and fought stereotypes to carve a niche in a space considered a male territory. She has achieved a lot in a decade-long career helping in the process Sleuths India reach to the levels where it's today.

Sleuths India is privileged to be led, guided and mentored by a director of that high caliber and salutes her indomitable spirits and zeal to raise the bar in the industry. Without her consistent efforts, the agency would never reach the glorious heights it did so effortlessly in a journey of around 17 years.

Branding & Ambassadors

Kangana Ranaut

Rajkummar Rao

Taapsee Pannu

Sleuths India is an agency that always believes in excelling beyond the norms and staying ahead of the trends. The same belief has made it the first and only detective company in India to start the culture of brand promotion through big celebrities and A-list Bollywood names like Kangana Ranaut, Taapsee Pannu and RajKumar Rao.

In the last three years alone, the agency has entered into a co-branding collaboration with India's top entertainment & movie company Balaji Telefilms Limited on two separate occasions. In 2019, Sleuths and Balaji had partnered for the movie, "Judgemental Hai Kya" where the lead actors Kangana Ranaut and RajKumar Rao featured in a commercial.

The movie was a huge critical success and it trended for weeks on social media for a unique plotline and some amazing performances from the lead. The idea behind the collaboration was a natural coming together of two entities exploring the same cause one in real-life while the other on reel, as the film dwelt on the subject of investigating a murder and finding the truth beneath.

Once again in 2022, Sleuths India and Balaji joined hands for the thriller movie "Dobaaraa" (2...12), which opened the London Indian Film Festival 2022 and had an August release. The movie garnered rave reviews from critics and generated quite a lot of social media buzz. As a part of marketing, Sleuths India launched a new TV commercial attached to the movie trailer and featuring the lead of the movie, Taapsee Pannu.

Both the high-profile ventures put Sleuths India on a pedestal where none reached before in the investigation industry. And it also shows why the agency is here to make a difference irrespective of the gravity and challenges in the path. This also makes it not only a popular choice for top industrialists, politicians or bureaucrats but is also very famous among Bollywood A-list stars.

In fact, it's the only private detective agency that collaborates with top celebrities for the role of brand promoter and ambassadors. Sleuths India has always been proactive in terms of branding & promotion to amplify the reach and take investigation to the masses. All this aptly underlines its position as being the most trusted most awarded private investigation agency in the country.

The collaboration is also a true testimony of the leadership position that Sleuths India currently enjoys in private investigation industry. The company now boasts of the largest team of investigators in India and is headed by an award-winning MD.

With this exciting partnership, Sleuths India looks to capitalize on the vast exposure that cinema enjoys so that it can reach to a new audience base and continue to regain the top slot in the investigation space.

Clientele

Sleuths India has a very impressive clientele with some of the top national and international brands on its roll. Over the years, it has catered to some of the foremost names from the Indian corporate sector besides enjoying a fruitful association with many high-profile global clients. The vastly impressive list of clients includes almost 200 national and global-level companies, including business houses, MNCs, corporate behemoths etc. The glittering list of clientele involves top industrialists, senior bureaucrats, technocrats, national and state level politicians etc.

Sleuths India takes pleasure to have served many celebrities, professionals, media personalities, and thousands of well-known faces and personalities from diverse domains. On the sheer basis of clients on the roster, it's easily rated the most sought-after investigation agency in India and that too, by a big margin. It has many premier clients who don't want their names to be disclosed else, the actual list of clients would indeed have looked even far greater than it currently does. It could be safely said that no competitor comes anywhere close to Sleuths India in terms of clients.
